FALL RIVER MAN INDICTED ON AGGRAVATED RAPE CHARGES

BROCKTON – A Fall River man has been indicted on charges he raped a female victim he met online, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today.

George M. Wamboldt (DOB: 09/22/82) of Fall River, was indicted today by a Plymouth County Grand Jury on two counts of Aggravated Rape.

The investigation began on October 15, when Rochester Police were contacted about an allegation of a female juvenile rape in that town. Through their investigation, police discovered that Wamboldt had an ongoing and sexually explicit conversation with the underage victim online. The indictments allege that between June 1, 2015 and October 13, 2015, numerous graphic text messages with conversation and pictures were exchanged between Wamboldt and the victim. The indictments additionally allege that Wamboldt sexually assaulted her on one occasion in the town of Rochester and on another occasion in Fall River.

Wamboldt was arrested in Derry, N.H. on October 17, 2015 while visiting family.

Wamboldt is currently being held on $10,000 cash bail. He will be arraigned at a later date.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Amanda Fowle and was investigated by the Rochester Police Department.
